Additional Fun Things to do in Rhode Island and Nearby Connecticut

Prices may vary

Roger Williams State Park & Zoo, Providence, RI – Offering a beautiful Zoo, Paddle Boats, Carousel, Walking Paths and more.

Yawgoo Valley Water Park, Exeter, RI www.yawgoo.com/waterpark (1 hour - $14; 2 hours - $19). Spectators do not have to pay. Picnic benches and food available onsite.

Watson Farm, Jamestown, RI www.historicnewengland.org (search Watson Farm) - Open 1-5PM ($6 for adults and $3 students) – self guided tours, animal farm and rocky beach along the shore (excellent location to look for sea glass – it will be low tide). A lot of walking so wear comfortable shoes and bring water. Restrooms available.

Beavertail State Park, Jamestown, RI – Visit the lighthouse, enjoy many Geocaches areas and excellent views for picnic lunch and wondering.

Newport, RI: Will be busy but many things to do: Cliff Walk, Mansions, Beaches, Shopping, Food

Narragansett, RI: Public Beach, Lookout Towers, Coast Guard House Restaurant (on water), many Geocaches in the area, Playgrounds near by Watch Hill, Westerley, RI: Fun location with lots of restaurants and sights, but parking could be difficult on the weekend, so arrive early.

Public Beaches : Many(!) throughout Southern Rhode Island - $20 per out of state car. All have pay showers and changing rooms, concession stands.

Hiking Adventures: If interested contact Frank and Tanya Murphy for specific information as well as any questions regarding any of the above activities. Tam525@msn.com Mystic, CT: Mystic Aquarium, along with lots of interesting sites, ships, restaurants, museums in town. (20 mins from Paddy's Beach Club).

Thank you to the Murphy Family! Questions to Tanya @ Tam525@msn.com 😊
